Carrabba's Italian Grill Teams Up with Uber Eats for Delivery Partnership

TAMPA, Fla. (September 17, 2019) – Carrabba's Italian Grill, serving authentic Italian cuisine passed down from the restaurant founders' family, has added another way for customers to enjoy made-from-scratch favorites without leaving their home. Carrabba's full menu is now available through Uber Eats.

"Even though families are busier than ever, they still want to sit down together for a warm delicious meal," said Michael Kappitt, President of Carrabba's Italian Grill. "This partnership complements our existing in-house delivery service and gives guests another option to get the homemade flavors of Carrabba's delivered right to their doorstep."

"From our warm, crusty bread with olive oil and fresh herbs for dipping to our famous Chicken Bryan, our made-from-scratch food suits the occasion perfectly," said Jay Smith, Carrabba's Executive Chef. "Thank you for not cooking!"

Dinner from Carrabba's through Uber Eats is now available in company-owned locations; lunch is available at participating locations.*

"We are thrilled to be able to offer folks across the U.S. access to their Carrabba's favorites, right at their fingertips through the Uber Eats app," said Kelly Seeman, Director of Enterprise Partnerships at Uber Eats.
